

Gen. W. B. Smith Has Surgery

Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, former Under Secretary of State, was reported yesterday to be recovering from a major operation performed Saturday morning at Flower and Fifth Avenue Hospitals. The 59-year-old vice chairman of the American Machine and Foundry Company was "coming along very well," according to his physician, Dr. Edward E. Rockey. General Smith entered the hospital last Friday.